Defendants Jose Rossi and County of Napa Motion to Dismiss pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 12(b)(6) came before the court. The Motion has been fully briefed by the parties and oral argument was heard on _____ . For the reasons set forth below, Defendants' Motion is GRANTED.

I.

ALLEGATIONS OF THE COMPLAINT

26 Plaintiff Robert Jones filed his complaint on June 12, 2007, naming as defendants Napa 27 Police Department, County of Napa, City of Napa, Michelle Jones, Thomas Toler dba Toler Bail 28 Bonds, Jose Rossi and Does 1-100 "individually and as employees of Agents of THE CITY or

[PROPOSED] ORDER ON MOTION TO DISMISS

1 County OF NAPA.” The complaint was received by Defendants Rossi and County of Napa on or 2 about June 10, 2008.

3 Plaintiff’s complaint contains a detailed account of his March 15, 2005, arrest and subsequent 4 incarceration, prosecution and conviction of unspecified charges. He alleges that he was arrested by 5 officers of the Napa City Police Department and that he was a detainee at the Napa County Jail. He 6 alleges he was beaten or otherwise injured at the hands of the officers. He further alleges that during 7 his detention at the jail he was housed in a “Pod” as well as Administrative Segregation. Plaintiff 8 alleges that he was tried for unspecified felony charges in December 2005 and that a jury, after one 9 hour’s deliberation, found him guilty. Plaintiff alleges these criminal charges were appealed; 10 however the outcome of the appeal is not alleged.

11 With respect to defendant County of Napa, plaintiff alleges that the County is a 12 “governmental agency.” Complaint at 2:15. Plaintiff further alleges as to this defendant:

13 [County] promulgated, encouraged, administered, and/or permitted 14 the policies, practice and/or procedures and actions of its 15 employees. This constitutes and/or engenders a circumstance and/or 16 environment of deliberate indifference to the rights and safety of citizens of the community. The entities are referred to interchangeably herein.
 16 Complaint at 2:15-19.

17 No other allegations are made specifically concerning the County of Napa.

18 With respect to Jose Rossi, the plaintiff identifies this defendant as “a county governmental 19 employee.” Complaint at 2:22-23. Plaintiff further alleges as to this defendant:

20 [Rossi] works for the County of Napa, which promulgated, 21 encouraged, administered, and/or permitted, the policies, practices, 22 and/or procedures of the County under which the individual 23 defendant employee committed the acts or omissions complaint of herein, and either intentionally or negligently, whether as a result of 24 policies, practices, or procedures, or as a result of ineffective, 25 nonexistent, or inadequate training and education of employees, 26 caused or were otherwise responsible for the acts or omissions of 27 said employees as complained of herein, and plaintiffs allege that the policies, practices, and/or procedures of Napa County, as determined and effected by the individual defendant and other employees of Napa County, constitute and/or engender a circumstance and/or environment of deliberate indifference to the rights and safety of citizens of the community. The entities are referred to interchangeably herein. Complaint at 2:23-3:9.

28 Plaintiff alleges as against Rossi that Rossi met with Jones’ ex-wife, co-defendant Michelle

[PROPOSED] ORDER ON MOTION TO DISMISS

1 Jones (Complaint 8:1-3); that Rossi made “truth omissions” (Id., at 8:14-17); that Rossi added felony 2 charges against plaintiff as a result of Rossi’s meeting with Mrs. Jones but these charges were 3 subsequently dismissed (Id., at 11:18-20); that Rossi contacted co-defendant Toler, an alleged bail
 4 bondsman, with “disinformation” (Id. at 13:20-14:8); that the District Attorney’s Office suppressed
 5 evidence, the exact nature of which is not alleged (Id. at 17:22-18:2); that Rossi made false 6 statements in court (Id. at 3-11); that Rossi’s statements in court resulted in death threats to plaintiff 7 by plaintiff’s fellow inmates (Id. at 18:15-22); and that plaintiff “worked with” the Napa County 8 District Attorney and child molestation investigators (Id. at 19:14-17).

9 Plaintiff’s complaint sets forth thirteen causes of action. The First and Second Causes of 10 action are based on 42 U.S.C. 1983 alleging civil rights violations relating to the arrest and search of 11 plaintiff; the Third and Fourth Causes of action are based on California Civil Code section 52.1 for 12 civil rights violations relating to the arrest and search of plaintiff; the Fifth through Thirteenth 13 Causes of Action allege various intentional and negligent torts, including intentional infliction of 14 emotional distress, false arrest, assault and battery, negligent infliction of emotional distress, 15 trespass, conspiracy, intentional and negligent interference with prospective economic advantage, 16 and “slander, libel, terrorist threats, eavesdropping (sic), and wiretap.”

17 All causes of action are alleged “against all defendants.” No specific factual information is 18 alleged nor attributed to any specific defendant in relation to any alleged cause of action.

19 II.

20 DISMISSAL IS PROPER IN THAT PLAINTIFF’S COMPLAINT
FAILS TO STATE A CLAIM UPON WHICH RELIEF
CAN BE GRANTED AGAINST DEFENDANTS COUNTY OF NAPA AND JOSE ROSSI

22 A. Standards for Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss

23 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide that a motion to dismiss is appropriate where the 24 plaintiff fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. (Fed.R.Civ.P. 12(b)(6).) A Rule 25 12(b)(6) dismissal is proper where it appears on the face of the complaint that either there is a lack of 26 cognizable legal theory or where there is an absence of facts alleged under a cognizable legal theory.
 27 (Ballistreri v. Pacifica Police Department, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990).)

28 A motion pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) challenges the sufficiency of the plaintiff’s complaint.

[PROPOSED] ORDER ON MOTION TO DISMISS

1 Reviewing the sufficiency of the complaint, the question before the court “is necessarily a limited 2 one. The issue is not whether a plaintiff will ultimately prevail but whether the claimant is entitled 3 to offer evidence to support the claims.” (Scheurer v. Rhodes, 416 U.S. 232, 236, 94 S.Ct 1683
 4 (1974).) Dismissal pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) is proper when “plaintiff 5 can prove no set of facts in support of [her] claim which would entitle [her] to relief.” (Conley v.
 6 Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46, 78 S.Ct. 99 (1957).)

7 The court, construing the complaint in the light most favorable to the plaintiff and accepting 8 all well pleaded factual allegations as true, must determine whether the plaintiff can prove any set of 9 facts to support a claim that would merit relief. (Cahill v. Liberty Mut. Ins. Co., 80 F.3d 336, 337-10 338 (9th Cir. 1996).)

11 B. Plaintiff Files to Allege Facts Sufficient to State the Timeliness of Any Cause of 12 Action.

13 Plaintiff’s causes of action, all sounding in tort claims for personal injury, are governed by a 14 two year statute of limitations. (CCP 335.1; Owners v. Okure, 488 U.S. 225, 109 S.Ct. 573 (1989) - 15 Courts have borrowed the state’s personal injury statute of limitations for 42 U.S.C. § 1983 actions.)
 16 He alleges an arrest date of March 15, 2005, presumably the date upon which he claims the events 17 occurred giving rise to his causes of action. Plaintiff fails to allege any other dates upon which his 18 claims are based. Plaintiff fails to allege any facts upon which any tolling provisions would apply.
 19 As such, on its face plaintiff’s complaint fails to state facts sufficient to demonstrate he has complied 20 with the applicable limitations.

21 C. Plaintiff Fails to Allege Facts Sufficient to State Any Cause of Action for 22 Intentional or Tortious Conduct of Defendants County of Napa or Jose Rossi

23 Plaintiff’s fifth through thirteenth causes of action are premised alleged liability in tort.
 24 Premised on tort liability, allegations against public entity defendants must necessarily also allege 25 compliance with the California Tort Claims Act. (State v. Superior Court (2004) 32 Cal.4th 1234, 26 1239.) Plaintiffs’ complaint fails to allege that any claim was submitted to these demurring 27 defendants within the requisite time limitations imposed by the Act. (Id., at page 1243: “[W]e 28 conclude that a plaintiff must allege facts demonstrating or excusing compliance with the claim

1 presentation requirement. Otherwise, his complaint is subject to general demurrer for failure to state
 2 facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.”) Given the dates of the incidents alleged in plaintiff’s 3 complaint, absent some applicable tolling provision, no claim can now be timely presented such that 4 plaintiff may pursue these causes of action sounding in tort. Absent a showing that plaintiff can 5 allege compliance, defendants’ 12(b)(6) challenge must be sustained.

6 D. Plaintiff Fails to Allege Facts Sufficient to State Any Cause of Action Against Jose Rossi

7 Plaintiff bases his claims against Jose Rossi solely in Rossi’s capacity as “Deputy District 8 Attorney.” All allegations specifically made against defendant Rossi are related to his activity in his 9 capacity as Deputy District Attorney, whether in interviewing witnesses, communicating 10 information, or making statements entirely in connection with his role as the attorney prosecuting 11 criminal charges against plaintiff. No acts are alleged in the complaint against Rossi outside the 12 scope of his role as the attorney prosecuting charges against plaintiff.

13 With regard to plaintiff’s First through Fourth Causes of Action, no specific causal 14 connection is suggested between the alleged actions of Rossi and the civil rights violations of which 15 plaintiff complains. To state a claim for individual liability against Jose Rossi, the plaintiff must 16 allege that Rossi either had a “personal involvement in the constitutional deprivation,” or he must 17 allege facts sufficient to establish a causal connection between Rossi and the actions of which he 18 complains. Redman v. County of San Diego, 942 F.2d 1435, 1446 (9th Cir. 1991).

19 Section 1983 actions alleging violations of constitutional rights require a causal link between 20 the actions of the defendant and the deprivations alleged to have been suffered by the plaintiff.
 21 Rizzo v. Goode, 423 U.S. 362, 370-371, 375-376, 96 S.Ct. 598 (1976). Inasmuch as California Civil 22 Code section 52.1 are also premised on alleged constitutional rights violations, these causes of action 23 likewise require allegation of a causal link. A person deprives another “of a constitutional right, 24 within the meaning of section 1983, if he does an affirmative act, participates in another’s 25 affirmative act, or omits to perform an act which he is legally required to do that causes the 26 deprivation of which [plaintiffs complain].” Johnson v. Duffy, 588 F.2d 740, 743 (9th Cir. 1978).
 27 The causation inquiry must be individualized, focused on the duties and responsibilities of each 28

1 individual defendant whose acts or omissions are alleged to have cause a constitutional deprivation.
 2 Leer v. Murphy, 844 F.2d 628, 633 (9th Cir. 1988). Plaintiff fails to attribute any specific acts to 3 defendant Rossi causally related to the alleged constitutional violations for which he seeks redress 4 and, as such, these causes of action cannot be maintained by plaintiff against Rossi.

5 An equally compelling basis exists, however, for dismissal of all causes of action against 6 defendant Rossi in the absolute immunity to which defendant Rossi is entitled. Extending the 7 common law rule of prosecutorial immunity, the Supreme Court in Imbler v. Pachtman, 424 U.S.
 8 409, 96 S.Ct. 984 (1976) held that the same public policy considerations apply in preserving 9 prosecutorial integrity in the face of potential 42 U.S.C. Section 1983 actions.¹ No allegation against 10 Rossi falls outside the scope of his prosecutorial role relative to criminal charges of which the 11 plaintiff also alleges he was convicted. Rossi is entitled to absolute immunity and all causes of 12 action against him must be dismissed.

13 Under any construction of plaintiff's complaint, the allegations fail to state a claim against 14 Jose Rossi upon which relief can be granted. Plaintiff's complaint fails to state a claim upon which 15 relief can be granted against Jose Rossi; therefore plaintiff's complaint is subject to dismissal.

16 E. Plaintiff Fails to Allege Any Facts Sufficient to State A Cause of Action Against 17 Defendant County of Napa

18 Plaintiff's complaint alleges no specific facts as to the County of Napa relative to any cause 19 of action. Absent any allegations of specific duties of the County or actions of the County causally 20 related to plaintiffs' claimed damages, plaintiffs have stated no cause of action against this entity and 21 this motion to dismiss must be granted.

22 Fruther, plaintiff's complaint seeks punitive damages against the County. Punitive damages 23 are not recoverable against a public entity in California. California Gov't Code § 818.

26 ¹ "If a prosecutor had only a qualified immunity, the threat of Section 1983 suits would undermine 27 performance of his duties no less than would the threat of common-law suits for malicious prosecution. A 28 prosecutor is duty bound to exercise his best judgment both in deciding which suits to bring and in conducting them in court. The public trust of the prosecutor's office would suffer if he were constrained in making every decision by the consequences in terms of his own potential liability in a suit for damages." (Imbler, at pages 424-425.)

III.

MOTION FOR MORE DEFINITE STATEMENT

A. Standard For Motion For More Definite Statement

4 _____ Fed.R.Civ.P. 12(e) provides that if a pleading to which a response is permitted is so vague or 5 ambiguous such that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a response, that party may move 6 for a more definite statement before filing a responsive pleading.

B. Plaintiff's Claims Against Defendants Rossi and County of Napa Are Vague and Ambiguous Such That Defendant Is Unable To Reasonably Frame An Adequate Response

9 Plaintiff's allegations against defendants Rossi and County of Napa are vague and ambiguous 10 in that it cannot be ascertained from the pleading the precise conduct that plaintiff upon which 11 claims each cause of action is based and in that the complaint alleges no involvement in any 12 violation attributable to Rossi and/or the County of Napa upon which any single cause of action is 13 based. Plaintiff fails to allege any cognizable theory against Rossi and/or the County of Napa.
14 Plaintiff must specify the basis for her claim against these defendants to enable a response to the 15 complaint. Defendants are currently unable to properly frame a response due to the vagueness and 16 ambiguity.

C. Plaintiff's Claims Relative To His Criminal Conviction Are Uncertain

18 In Heck v. Humphry, 512 U.S. 477, 114 S.Ct. 2364 (1994), the Supreme Court held that a 19 state prisoner could not bring a 1983 claim if a judgment in his favor would “necessarily demonstrate 20 [] the invalidity of [his] conviction.” (Heck, at pages 481-482.) The court further held, “[T]o 21 recover damages for allegedly unconstitutional conviction or imprisonment, or for other harm caused 22 by actions whose unlawfulness would render a conviction or sentence invalid, a section 1983 23 plaintiff must prove that the conviction or sentence has been reversed on direct appeal, expunged by 24 executive order, declared invalid by state tribunal authorized to make such determination or called 25 into question by a federal court’s issuance of a writ of habeas corpus . . .” (Id., at pages 486-487.) 26 Relying on the Heck decision, the Ninth circuit extended the ruling beyond the context of 27 convictions or sentences to hold that it applies to claims challenging the validity of an arrest, 28 prosecution or conviction. Guerrero v. Gates, 442 F.3d 697, 703 (9th Cir. 2006). The subsequent

1 Supreme Court decision in Wallace v. Kato – US –, 127 S.Ct. 1091 (2007), now specifically limits 2 the holding in Heck, determining that the Heck rule for deferred accrual is called into play only when 3 there exists ‘a conviction or sentence that has not been . . . invalidated,’ that is to say, an ‘outstanding 4 criminal judgment.’” (Id., at pages 1097-1098.) In this instance, the plaintiff has affirmatively 5 pleaded his criminal conviction.

6 Federal and state courts have consistently held that the doctrine of collateral estoppel may 7 preclude re-litigation of issues that were decided in a prior criminal proceeding. Allen v. McCurry, 8 449 U.S. 90, 103-104, 101 S.Ct. 411 (1980) - collateral estoppel effect given to a ruling on pretrial
 9 suppression motion; Coogan v. City of Wixon, 820 F.2d 170, 175 (6th Cir. 1987) - collateral estoppel 10 effect given to probable cause finding made by state court); Mueller v. JC Penney Co, 173
 11 Cal.App.3d 713, 219 Cal.Rptr. 272 (1985) - collateral estoppel effect given to misdemeanor 12 conviction.

13 In this case, given the vague allegations of plaintiff’s complaint with respect to the specific 14 nature and status of the criminal conviction, any collateral estoppel or res judicata effect of that 15 judgment is uncertain as to each cause of action now alleged by plaintiff. Plaintiff must specify the 16 nature and status of his criminal conviction to allow these defendants to frame a proper response.

17 III. ORDER

18 Based on the foregoing, Defendant’s Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED.
